

Leaves Policy

Ref: HR/BTE 001/7-2025

Effective Date:	1 st August, 2025	Location:	EGYPT
Authorized Dept	Human Resources	Distribution:	All Staff

1. Purpose:

Aiming to establish clear, consistent guidelines regarding employee time off. Also, to keep the work process smooth and increase efficiency. This helps both the organization and employees understand their rights, responsibilities, and expectations.

2. Eligibility:

This Leaves policy Eligibility is upon the following terms:

- The nature of the role is Full Time employee.
- Direct Manager Approval.
- Employees who passed the probation period.

Eligibility will be reviewed periodically and may be adjusted based on business needs or performance considerations.

3. Types of Leaves:

To support employee well-being, work-life balance, and compliance with legal standards, the company provides various types of leave entitlements. Each type of leave is designed to accommodate different personal, medical, and professional needs, ensuring that employees have the time and flexibility necessary to manage their responsibilities both at work and in their personal lives.

3.1 Annual Leave

- It will be granted on a retroactive basis after the probation period.
- The leave year runs on a January to December basis every year. And it will be divided as ratio upon the hiring date.
- The employee is eligible for 15 days for the 1st hiring year.
- The employee is eligible for 21 days per year (14 regular + 7 Casual).
- An employee above 50 years old or has 10+ years of SI is eligible for 30 days per year (23 regular + 7 Casual).
- For regular leaves requests (2-3 Days) must be submitted at least 24 hours prior to it, Vacation requests exceeding three consecutive days must be submitted for approval at least seven working days in advance.

- Casual Leaves are limited to 2 days consecutive.
- Only allowed to carry Max of 5 days of leave balance days to be used in the first quarter of the following year.
- Leave days will be deducted from the salary, if the employee hasn't available balance or consumed during the probation period.
- In Case of resignation or termination, the remaining balance will be paid to the employee.

3.2 Sick Leave

- Sick leave must be supported by a detailed medical report with doctor recommendations from our Medical service provider network , which you are required to submit to the HR team as an attachment.
- Sick Leave will be calculated as per the Egyptian Labor Law and internal business needs.

3.3 Marriage Leave

- For the employee who has at least 1 year of service at the company.
- 5 days covered by the company.
- Once during service life.
- Any extra days will be deducted from employee vacation balance.

3.4 Hajj Leave

- The employee is eligible for one month, to make a pilgrimage to Mecca or Jerusalem.
- For the Employee has been working for the Company for more than 5 consecutive years on a full-time basis.
- Once in the total period of work at the Company.

3.5 Umrah Leave

- Only applicable after one year of employment.
- 5 days' paid leave is covered by the company.
- Once during the service period.

3.6 Military Service Summon

- In accordance with the requirements of law, the Company will provide military leave for employees up to the formal letter received from the military authority.
- Full paid leave during the period of summons.

3.7 Educational Leave

- The exams schedule must be shared previously with HR and direct manager.
- Leave is restricted to the days of exams only.

3.8 Funeral Leave

- 3 days paid time off may be granted in case of First degree relative death. (Father, Mother, Son, Daughter, Husband, Wife).
- 1 day in the second relative degree death (Grand Father, Grand Mother, Brother, Sister, Grand Sons).

3.9 Maternity Leave

- For the female employee who has at least 1 year of service at the company.
- The employee is entitled to a maternity leave of 4 months at full pay.
- Eligible for 3 times during the whole period of service.

3.10 Paternity Leave

- 1 day's paid leave can be taken only on the delivery surgery day.
- Eligible for 3 times during the whole Service period.

3.11 Compensatory off Leave

- Employees who work at least 4 hours on official holidays or weekends are entitled to one compensatory day off -added to the vacation balance- subject to prior approval by the Direct Manager.

4. Guidelines & Conditions:

Employees who apply of leave must adhere to the following conditions to ensure efficiency, accountability, and alignment with team operations:

1. Approval Requirement: Leave is subject to managerial approval and may be declined based on business needs. Emergency or unplanned leave must be intimated as early as possible.
2. Leave Balance: Employees should check their available leave balance before applying. Leave beyond the available balance will be considered as Leave Without Pay.
3. Unauthorized Absence: Absence without proper communication or approval will be treated as unauthorized and may result in disciplinary action.
4. Leave Encashment and Carry Forward: Encashment and carry forward of leave will be governed by company-specific policy and applicable laws.
5. Public Holidays: Employees are entitled to public holidays as per the company's annual calendar and applicable laws. Optional holidays can be availed based on religious or regional preferences, with prior approval.
6. Combination of Leaves: Multiple types of leave (e.g., sick + annual) may be combined only if approved in advance.

7. Leave During Notice Period: Taking leave during the notice period requires special approval and is usually discouraged.

5. Monitoring & Adjustments:

Department Heads, in collaboration with HR and Management, may modify eligibility or privileges at any time if misuse is detected or if workflow and productivity are impacted.

6. Process Flow:

